Solarvalue at the Intersolar 2008

From the 12th of June to the 14th of June 2008 the Intersolar, the world biggest trade fair for solar technique took place in Munich for the first time (previously Freiburg). The new location proved itself as extremely successful. The organizer expected about 40,000 visitors during these three days. But with more than 50,000 people (2007: 31,964) from 130 nations expectations were highly exceeded.

Not only for the fair Munich the Intersolar was a great success - also for the Solarvalue AG - which participated at the Intersolar for the first time with its own booth. During the three days Solarvalue, which was represented by a brilliant team of experts, held numerous meetings with investors, financial analysts, cooperation partners and potential customers. Additionally Dr. Julio Bragagnolo (CTO) gave a speech about the production on solar grade silicon by refining metallurgical grade silicon.

Parallel to the fair Solarvalue AG took place at the MainFirst Bank Intersolar Investor Conference at the 12th of June 2008. Here the company's management presented itself besides high class companies from the solar industry in front of European institutional investors.
